

The Bumbling Fool

Dismal

The Hopelessly Inept

Poor

The Everyman

Mediocre

The Fresh Recruit

Fair

The Seasoned Professional

Good

The Grizzled Veteran

Great

The Specialist

Exceptional

The Master

Incredible

The Pinnacle

Peerless

Aptitudes tell you how well your character performs in any given trait, defaulting to Mediocre.

Aptitude Ladder

Card Reminders

Only when you are out of cards.

Getting New Cards

Wear and Tear

Each time you draw a new hand, your hand size is reduced by one.

Narrator's Advantage

The Narrator can always draw up to five cards per hand, but she can choose to draw fewer cards.

Pushing

Pushing lets you augment your character's traits by playing cards. When you don't think your character's traits will support the abtitions of her actions, you should push.

1. Pick the Push

You can push your character physically, mentally, or socially. The type of push you choose determines the suit of the push and the effect the cards have on your character's aptitudes.

- Physical pushes wield Swords.
- Mental pushes focus on Wands.
- Social pushes carry Cups.
- Pentacles can be used in any push.

4. Wrap Up

Once the outcome of the push is resolved all cards in play are discarded and your character's aptitudes return to normal. Draw a new hand if needed.

Major Arcana go rogue and play by their own set of rules.

Cards that do not match the suit of the push are Burned.

For each Royal card (Knave, Knight, Queen, or King) that matches the suit of the push or is a Pentacle.

For each Pip card that matches the suit of the push or is a Pentacle.

3. The Reveal

Flip over the cards and determine your character's new aptitude score:

2. Play Your Cards

Commit to the cards you want to play by placing them face down in front of you.

[ Character Name ]

T U R N

of the

C A R D

